

INSTITUTE

Teaching the Whole Child, K-6

WHEN

Thursday, March 28, 2019
8:30–9:00 AM Check-in
9:00 AM–3:00 PM Institute

WHERE

Marin County Office of Education
1111 Las Gallinas Avenue
San Rafael, CA 94903

REGISTER

$100 registration fee
includes the Institute handbook, morning beverages, and lunch.
To register, visit
bit.ly/wholechildMar28

QUESTIONS?

Please contact Emily Cremidis at (415) 444-0403 or ecremidis@collaborativeclassroom.org.

ABOUT THIS INSTITUTE

This professional learning experience focuses on the critical role of social-emotional learning (SEL) in our core literacy instruction. Participants will explore and discuss culturally responsive teaching practices that intentionally develop SEL and academic skills.

PARTICIPANTS WILL

- Deepen their knowledge around the importance of intentionally developing students' SEL skills
- Examine culturally responsive teaching practices that support the development of core SEL competencies
- Analyze the interdependence of social and academic skills in literacy lessons
- Connect SEL competencies to the development of a growth mindset
- Familiarize themselves with how SEL teaching practices are aligned with other initiatives, including academic standards and teacher evaluation frameworks
- Receive institute materials, lessons, and access to free online resources

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This day of professional learning is designed to support K-6 teachers, administrators, and literacy leaders who are working to ensure that all students thrive academically and socially.