

Learning Assessment

STRONGER TOGETHER

Post Training Learning Assessment

First Name _____ Last Name _____

Email _____ Date: _____

Please note: the information you have provided above will remain confidential and will only be used by the Foundation to help us assess the effectiveness of our training should you choose to pursue Continuing Education Units from the CDC. You will not be contacted or solicited for any reason other than issues related to this training.

For the questions below, please choose the one best answer for each question.

1. Complex partial seizures can impair a person's level of awareness.
 True
 False
2. I should call an ambulance if a student has a convulsive seizure lasting more than how long?
 1 minute
 3 minutes
 5 minutes
 10 minutes
3. I should track when a seizure starts and ends.
 True
 False
4. When should you administer a student's rescue medication?
 As soon as a seizure starts
 If the seizure has not stopped after 1 minute
 If the seizure has not stopped after 2 minutes
 At the time that is noted in the child's seizure action plan
5. I should never place an object in the student's mouth during a seizure.
 True
 False
6. Which of the following actions should NOT be taken while a student is having a seizure?
 Restrain the student
 Place something soft under the student's head
 Protect student from possible dangers
 Provide emotional support
7. All epileptic seizures are convulsive.
 True
 False
8. Seizures always cause a student to lose consciousness.
 True
 False
9. Which type of seizure may look like blank stares or day dreaming?
 Tonic-clonic seizure
 Simple partial seizure
 Complex partial seizure
 Absence seizure
10. One first aid measure during a convulsive seizure is to turn the student to one side.
 True
 False
11. Some students may have warning signs (auras) just before a seizure.
 True
 False
12. A student may be disoriented after a seizure and should not be left alone.
 True
 False
13. A seizure action plan is not part of a student's Individualized Education Plan.
 True
 False
14. Which type of seizure can have a significant impact on learning?
 Tonic-clonic
 Complex partial Simple partial
 Absence
 All of the above
15. A behavior change in a student may be due to their epilepsy.
 True
 False

Post Training Learning Assessment (Answer Key)

First Name _____ Last Name _____

Email _____ Date: _____

Please note: the information you have provided above will remain confidential and will only be used by the Foundation to help us assess the effectiveness of our training should you choose to pursue Continuing Education Units from the CDC. You will not be contacted or solicited for any reason other than issues related to this training.

For the questions below, please choose the one best answer for each question.

- Complex partial seizures can impair a person's level of awareness.
 True
 False
- I should call an ambulance if a student has a convulsive seizure lasting more than how long?
 1 minute
 3 minutes
 5 minutes
 10 minutes
- I should track when a seizure starts and ends.
 True
 False
- When should you administer a student's rescue medication?
 As soon as a seizure starts
 If the seizure has not stopped after 1 minute
 If the seizure has not stopped after 2 minutes
 At the time that is noted in the child's seizure action plan
- I should never place an object in the student's mouth during a seizure.
 True
 False
- Which of the following actions should NOT be taken while a student is having a seizure?
 Restrain the student
 Place something soft under the student's head
 Protect student from possible dangers
 Provide emotional support
- All epileptic seizures are convulsive.
 True
 False
- Seizures always cause a student to lose consciousness.
 True
 False
- Which type of seizure may look like blank stares or day dreaming?
 Tonic-clonic seizure
 Simple partial seizure
 Complex partial seizure
 Absence seizure
- One first aid measure during a convulsive seizure is to turn the student to one side.
 True
 False
- Some students may have warning signs (auras) just before a seizure.
 True
 False
- A student may be disoriented after a seizure and should not be left alone.
 True
 False
- A seizure action plan is not part of a student's Individualized Education Plan.
 True
 False
- Which type of seizure can have a significant impact on learning?
 Tonic-clonic
 Complex partial Simple partial
 Absence
 All of the above
- A behavior change in a student may be due to their epilepsy.
 True
 False