

E3 Equity Guided Conferences

Have you ever wondered how to leverage the experience of a conference into directly applicable outcomes for your professional and personal life? E3 has an answer!

E3 provides a unique opportunity to work with Dr. JuanCarlos Arauz as an Equity Conference Guide. Through personalized attention to your needs and desired learning outcomes, you will deepen your learning, sharpen your equity lens, and walk away with an action plan to bring back to your organization. We provide personalized connections to keynote speakers and other leaders in the field through unique evening sessions and tailored guidance and coaching to deepen your impact.

CONFERENCES

- Courageous Conversation on Race Summit (Detroit, MI) (October 14-18, 2017)
- Leadership with Equity through the Arts (Bay Area, CA) (October 20-22, 2017)
- People of Color in Independent Schools (Anaheim, CA) (Nov. 30-Dec. 2, 2017)
- White Privilege Conference (Grand Rapids, MI) (April 4 – 7, 2018)
- National Conference on Race & Ethnicity (New Orleans, LO) (May 30- June 2, 2018)

PROCESS

1. Complete Equity Intake Form and have pre-conference conversation with your E3 Equity Guide. Review goals for attending conference(s)
2. Debrief conference sessions and workshops (and the end of each day), process and integrate insights
3. Develop a personal action plan that integrates learning and insights from the conference

INCLUDED

- ◆ Self-assessment tools and tailored reflection sessions
- ◆ VIP access and personalized introduction to conference keynote speakers and premiere thought leaders. Intimate evening sessions and equity dialogues
- ◆ Work with your E3 Equity Guide to incorporate learning and insights from the conference into an action plan to implement once returning home/back to work

For more information and to submit your application, contact us:
(415) 578-2154 or admin@e3ed.org

