

TEACHERLAND

INSIDE THE MYTH OF THE AMERICAN EDUCATOR

A book talk with author Aaron Pribble

November 8, 2017

4:30-6:00 p.m.

Marin County Office of Education

- How do you manage a room of energetic adolescents and ensure everyone is learning?
- What happens when some students begin with a distinct disadvantage while others have every opportunity?
- How do colleagues and friends help counteract the profession's inherent isolation?

These are a few of the questions Teacherland considers, with the ultimate goal of improving our education system by humanizing the teaching profession. It aims to reframe the debate about what it means to teach and learn and to show—for real—what life is like behind the curtains of one of America's most important occupations.

Aaron Pribble is the author of Pitching in the Promised Land: A Story of the First and Only Season in the Israel Baseball League (2011). An award-winning educator whose work includes "Pribble is a Chiller": Student Input and Teacher Evaluations, Dreaming of Baseball in Havana, and Fastball in the Desert among other publications, Aaron teaches social studies at Tamalpais High School in Mill Valley, California.
