

U.S. Department of Education, Office of Safe and Healthy Students
Readiness and Emergency Management for Schools (REMS)
Technical Assistance Center

Developing Emergency Operations Plans
K-12 101 Train-the-Trainer Training

Sponsor: California Department of Education Is Sponsoring

Host: Sacramento County Office of Education

Monday, September 12, 2016

Who is encouraged to participate?

The 8-hour K-12 101 Train-the-Trainer (TtT) program is designed for experienced and potential master trainers from county offices of education (COEs) and local educational agencies (LEAs) who are responsible for training site-based planning teams in the creation, revision, or enhancement of school Emergency Operation Plans. It is also designed for other interested stakeholders including first responders, emergency medical services personnel, and law enforcement.

Registration is limited: Priority will be given to trainers affiliated with COEs and LEAs who have a role in school EOPs and school safety planning.

Southern California Training: The CDE will be sponsoring the same REMS 8-hour training later this year in Southern California. Registration will open when details are confirmed.

For more information, contact Nancy Zarenda, Education Policy Consultant, Coordinated School Health and Safety Office by email at: nzarenda@cde.ca.gov.