Dr. Nancy Dome earned her doctorate from Alliant University, an M.A. in Education specializing in Curriculum and Instruction from the U.S. International University-Europe, Bushey, England and a B.A., Psychology from the U.S. International University-San Diego.

Dr. Dome grew up in southern California and has been impacting children and educators for over 20 years. Starting her career as a Child Care Worker, she has always had a strong desire to support the At-Risk student population. Realizing the education track would allow her greater flexibility and reach than the social services track, she re- educated to become a teacher and spent 10 years working in multiple capacities, ranging from classroom teacher, mentor teacher and teacher on special assignment, in the Juvenile Court and Community Schools in San Diego.
