

Marin County Office of Education presents

Empowering All Students to Argue & Justify with Text Evidence

For Common Core Success

Grades 3-8 Elementary and Middle School
ELA, Science & Social Studies

Presented by

Tonya Ward Singer

Language & Literacy Consultant

LEARN, ENGAGE, COLLABORATE, AND PLAN

- ▶▶ This will be a workshop on dynamic ELA and content literacy instruction to help students in linguistically diverse classrooms excel with the rigor of CCSS and SBAC.
- ▶▶ The focus will be on high-level analysis tasks requiring inference and justification.

February 9, 2016 from 8:30 a.m.-3:00 p.m.

TO REGISTER: <https://signup.marinschools.org>

$50 per person

1111 Las Gallinas Ave. San Rafael, CA

QUESTIONS: (415)499-5881

Tonya Ward Singer,

M.F.A., is a bestselling author and EL consultant with a deep commitment to ensuring all students access high-quality education. She travels nationally to empower teachers with concrete tools to advance student literacy, language and critical thinking for 21st century success. Tonya wrote Opening Doors to Equity: A Practical Guide to Observation-Based Professional Learning, a Corwin bestseller. Her international publications also include EL curricula with Scholastic, Pearson/Longman and Oxford University Press.

