

Marin County Office of Education presents

High-Impact ELD

For Common Core Success

Make K-8 English Language Development (ELD)
POWERFUL for EVERY STUDENT!

Presented by

Tonya Ward Singer
Language & Literacy Consultant

- ▶ LEARN how to translate the ELD standards into high-impact lessons with a concrete framework and planning tools.
- ▶ ENGAGE in interactive demonstrations and analyze videos
- ▶ COLLABORATE to apply learning
- ▶ PLAN relevant, engaging ELD instruction aligned to students' needs.
- ▶▶ Participants should attend this two-session series in site teams that include two or more teachers and/or EL coordinators and an administrator if possible, but all are welcome.
- ▶▶ School-site coaching & planning sessions are available following session two for an additional fee, upon request.
- ▶▶ One Continuing Education Unit from Dominican University will be offered for an additional $55.

DATES

January 28
and March 17, 2016

TIME

8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m.

COST

$50 per person
(For both dates)

LOCATION

1111 Las Gallinas Ave.
San Rafael, CA

TO REGISTER

<https://signup.marinschools.org>

QUESTIONS?

415-499-5881

Tonya Ward Singer, M.F.A., is a bestselling author and EL consultant with a deep commitment to ensuring all students access high-quality education. She travels nationally to empower teachers with concrete tools to advance student literacy, language and critical thinking for 21st century success.

Tonya wrote Opening Doors to Equity: A Practical Guide to Observation-Based Professional Learning, a Corwin bestseller. Her international publications also include EL curricula with Scholastic, Pearson/Longman and Oxford University Press.