

Marin County Office of Education and Stanford University

bring:

NATIONAL BOARD CERTIFICATION to Marin County Teachers

Do the best for your students.

Be the best for you!

- Marin County Office of Education (MCOE) has partnered with Stanford's National Board Resource Center
- Candidates attend the Stanford support sessions at MCOE
- Advance your professional practice
- Focus on your grade or content level and collaborate with others
- Discover why teachers say the certification process is the most profound professional development of their career!

Details can be found at: nbrc.stanford.edu

For more information, contact Chris Spores, Director of Education Services at cspores@marinschools.org ~ 415.499.5878.

