

NAVIGATING SPECIAL EDUCATION: TIPS FROM SEASONED TRAVELERS

Saturday, December 6, 2014
10:00 am – 12:00 pm

A panel of parents and educators will provide their unique perspectives regarding what has (and what has not) worked for them in the areas of special education assessments, participating in IEP meetings, and understanding how IEP team decisions are made. The panel will share their experience/knowledge, answer questions, and provide invaluable information concerning the delivery of special education services.

Intended Audience: Parents of children receiving special education services
