Saturday, February 8, 2020

9:00am – 2:00pm

Presenters: Encian Pastel and Mitali Purkayastha

Goals for Children

Children, regardless of gender, will participate in a wide range of activities necessary for their full cognitive and social-emotional development.

Children will demonstrate positive feelings about their gender identity and develop clarity about the relationship between their anatomy and their gender role.

Children will talk about and show respect for the great diversity in appearance, emotional expressiveness, behavior, and gender roles for both boys and girls.

Children will recognize unfair or untrue messages (including invisibility) about gender roles.

Children will practice skills for supporting gender role diversity in their interactions with peers.
