

AUTHOR, ARTIST, EDUCATOR, ACTIVIST

MAYA GONZALEZ

Maya Gonzalez is an award-winning children's book artist, author, activist and progressive educator. Her work addresses systemic inequity in relation to race/ethnicity, sexism and cissexism using children's books as radical agents of change and healing, both personally and culturally. She co-founded Reflection Press, a POC, queer and trans owned independent publishing house that uses holistic, nature-based, and anti-oppression frameworks in their books and materials for kids and grown-ups. She is also the creator of the Gender Wheel, a tool to express the dynamic, infinite and inclusive reality of gender, and provides lectures and workshops to educators, parents and caregivers.

www.mayagonzalez.com; www.genderwheel.com; www.reflectionpress.com

Community Room
Marin County Office of Education
1111 Las Gallinas Ave
San Rafael, CA 94901

MAYA GONZALEZ

Gender Identity and Expression

A workshop for parents and guardians to reorient and explore gender expression and identity. This workshop will engage you in activities to use with your children.

NOVEMBER 14TH

6:00-7:30 PM

Register at Eventbrite

Childcare and light dinner provided

Spanish Translation available