

Payroll Compliance & Calendar Year-End Reporting

See matrix for key

Full-day workshop
Includes materials, continental breakfast and lunch
Qualifies for 6.5 CEUs

Designed for

Chief business officials who oversee payroll departments, payroll professionals who process and report payroll taxes and benefits and who support and provide resources for payroll processing, internal auditors, and human resources and benefit professionals.

Topics

Payroll regulations; employee classifications; salary computations; retirement and deferred compensation plans; taxable vs. non-taxable compensation; calendar year-end wage and tax reporting.

Description

This workshop will provide you with knowledge and research tools to comply with federal and state regulations that affect payroll processing and reporting. You'll receive legislative updates and hear about upcoming regulatory changes and best practices, as well as court decisions and Internal Revenue Service and Department of Labor rulings that affect payroll and benefit compliance.

Presenters

Brenda Boothe, Payroll/Retirement Consultant

Ramona Coker, Director II, Payroll and Retirement Compliance, Stanislaus County Office of Education

“

... Fantastic presenters: patient, very knowledgeable, organized and friendly. The booklets are full of organized and very useful information to guide us throughout the year. Great workshop!

— AMBER QUICK, CITRUS CCD